"The album, gave me the chance to perform shows locally and in other states. DJ's then respected my hustle n flow and allowed me to appear on mix tapes". Alongside partners from his early group "LIASON", DYMEZ, Cezar Capone and Bugs joined a local Rap Movement called Coalition. In 2003 Coalition dropped an underground album self titled and sold well over 1000 units out the trunk. (2000) After DYMEZ graduated from high school he moved to the bay area San Jose, California and hooked up with Atlanta native producer "Plex" and recorded 6 underground albums. Those albums where passed out all over the bay area. DYMEZ later decided to move back to his hometown in NY in 2003 to gain his CDA in child development. DYMEZ also appeared on a few bay area DJ mix tapes as well as Frontline's compilation album Group Therapy Vol. 1 which hit stores in 2004. Months later his solo project titled "Most Anticipated" was released independently and distributed through Frontline.
