BAND STORY

"JOHN PIMP aka MR. FWAHS has developed a style of writing and reciting that is very universal. His reputation started growing after doing drops for WJMI, a local radio station in Jackson, Ms. Formerly, he was a member of Q2B, which stands for Quick 2 Blast, a rap group which featured members: JOHN PIMP & DJ MAAD. The group hit a brick wall when DJ MAAD was stabbed to death. This left John Pimp in utter devastation. "Now the group is split in a way that I never even thought about. Man, I mean, we talked about so much like gettin' money, making investments, signing other artist, but we never talked about dying. I didn't know how to handle this." Since then, he has used this tragedy in his life as motivation and has picked up the pieces and decided to carry on in honor of the group and make it what it started out to be. Independently, he is promoting his music in the south region and has gained great recognition for his grind. He is on the verge of becoming a household name in the music industry.
