BAND STORY

"MEDUSA' S story is the best way to describe the unfettered way, energy and metal innovation produced by Izzy Skidzz and Charles Carnage. With a style and ability to inspire audiences and with influences from bands that have inspired generations of hard rock and metal lovers from the 80' s to today (Iron Maiden, Motley Crüe and Parkway Drive), MEDUSA has created its own style of metal music. MEDUSA came to life in Izzy Skidzz parent' s basement in 2009. Izzy Skidzz (formerly of Sonic Doom) had a bass set up there and when schoolmates Charlie Carnage –lead guitar (formerly of Blended Elements) and Brandon Rhythmix - drums (formerly of Blended Elements) brought their instruments, a band was born. When Kayla Whynter –lead vocals (formerly of The Hype and A Timeless Journey) joined a few weeks later, MEDUSA was ready to rock. The band performed live for the first time, 1 year ago, at the Montreal' s famed Club Soda. The response from the crowd was immediate. MEDUSA was on to something. Since then, the group has performed in local West Island venues and in larger venues such as the Piranha Bar, Le National and Les Foufounes Electriques. MEDUSA has barely started to scratch the surface of its unstoppable artistic potential. The band members are working on original material and are pushing the limits... "
